ADMINISTRATION

DR. E. J. WORKMAN
President

I extend my greetings to the student body, and my commendation for the rapid development of an excellent student organization.

E. J. Workman

DR. WILLIAM HUME
Director of the College

Greetings to the entire student body and particularly to the Class of 1957. This has been a year of considerable growth at NMIMT: in student body, faculty, and buildings. I believe that it has been, also, a year of continued development in the still more important aspects of our college life which are not readily evaluated in terms of numbers of people, or square feet, or dollars. For your very significant contributions to all these developments I offer you all my hearty congratulations.

William Hume

Men and women of all backgrounds and all skills are needed for vital jobs in every phase of our economy. The demand is big. The rewards are greater than ever. Doctors, physicists, teachers, farmers, mining engineers, agronomists—people with college training, people with youth, energy and foresight—all are needed. There are big problems to be solved and undreamed of discoveries to be made. These are things young Americans have always done in a big way. Good luck, Class of '57!
